Personal details:

I am a member of the Executive Team at Gateshead College where I have strategic responsibility for brand, marketing and communications strategy. I am also a Director of our subsidiary company Amacus, which specialises in leadership and management training. Our core purpose at Gateshead College, judged by Ofsted as Outstanding in 2015, is to make our students the most highly prized in the jobs market and give them an employment edge, something I deeply believe in. I am passionate about working in education and the opportunities it gives people to transform their lives no matter what their circumstances and understand the challenge of providing an outstanding service which meets the needs of students and their families whilst ensuring long term sustainability. I hope by sharing my expertise I can support the work of the Trust and its Executives to achieve their ambitions for their students.
